Student Activities

Lesson One Making Decisions

lesson 1 quiz: decision-making vocabulary

Read all the answers first. Choose the best one to complete the sentences:

1	You take a chance and buy a lottery ticket. The possibility that you'll lose your money is called: a. an alternative. b. a consequence. c. a risk. d. an opportunity cost.
2	 There are several different ways you could solve a problem. Your choices are called: a. alternatives. b. consequences. c. risks. d. opportunity costs.
3	 Whenever you make a decision, you have to be willing to accept the results. The results of your actions are called: a. alternatives. b. consequences. c. risks. d. opportunity costs.
4	 You give up something because you want something else more. What you give up is called: a. an alternative. b. a consequence. c. a risk. d. an opportunity cost.
5	 Joe forgot to mail in his car payment on time. As a result, he has to pay a late fee. This late fee is: a. an alternative. b. a consequence. c. a risk. d. an opportunity cost.

possible consequences of her decision?

name:	data
Hallie,	date:

why I make the choices I do

	willy I make the choices	- 40
What is the problem?
What do I know about the	nis problem?
=
What are my alternative	choices for solving this problem?
:
-
What are the consequence	ces of each of my choices?
.
=
What is the best choice?
-
Did I make a good choic	e? How do I know?
-

name: _____ date: ____

lesson 1 quiz: decision-making process

multiple choice

- 1. ____ The first step of the decision-making process is:
 - a. listing your choices.
 - b. stating the problem.
 - c. evaluating the results of your choice.
 - d. getting information.
- 2. ____ The last step of the decision-making process is:
 - a. listing your choices.
 - b. stating the problem.
 - c. evaluating the results of your choice.
 - d. getting information.

case application

Matt is one of the friendliest students at school. He is always talking to someone about sports or movies. He thinks he needs a cell phone. His parents say a cell phone is too expensive. Can you help Matt decide if he should buy a cell phone?

What ar	e two kinds of information that Matt needs to make his decision?
1
2
If Matt	decides not to buy a cell phone, what is an alternative choice he can make?

name: ______ date: _____

lesson 1 quiz: case application

case application

John makes minimum wage working at a restaurant. He says that it is no fun washing dishes there. His friend Amy works at a bookstore. She tells John that her store manager wants to hire another worker. Should John quit his job at the restaurant and work at the bookstore? He'd better get more information first.

l. Who	are two people that could give John more information?
1.
2.
	at are two questions that John could ask those people?
1.
2.
3. Whe	ere else could John look for more information or advice?

name:	date:

	K	7
	//	Ά.
	~	=1
J		_

decision role-playing

directions

What decision have you made lately? Was it easy or difficult? Role-play the decision-making strategy you used. Then answer the questions below.

1. Do you think your strategy worked well? Please explain.

2. What do you think influenced your decision-making strategy?

lesson 1 quiz: decision-making strategies

multiple choice

Identify the decision-making strategy described:

- 1. You do what everyone else is doing.
 - a. synthesis
 - b. compliance
 - c. procrastination
 - d. agonizing
- 2. You choose the first thing that you think of.
 - a. procrastination
 - b. agonizing
 - c. spontaneity
 - d. avoidance
- 3. You wait too long to decide.
 - a. compliance
 - b. procrastination
 - c. spontaneity
 - d. desire
- 4. You are confused by too much information.
 - a. agonizing
 - b. security
 - c. synthesis
 - d. desire
- 5. You choose a safe, less risky option.
 - a. security
 - b. spontaneity
 - c. desire
 - d. synthesis

date:

lesson 1 quiz: economic terms

multiple choice

- 1. —— People paying money for goods and services is called:
 - a. the unemployment rate.
 - b. consumer spending.
 - c. income risk.
 - d. interest rates.
- 2. When prices go up, it is called:
 - a. personal risk.
 - b. income risk.
 - c. inflation.
 - d. consumer spending.
- 3. ____ The number of people out of work is called:
 - a. inflation.
 - b. interest-rate risk.
 - c. consumer prices.
 - d. the unemployment rate.
- 4. The amount you pay to borrow money is called:
 - a. income risk.
 - b. consumer spending.
 - c. interest rate.
 - d. personal risk.
- 5. ____ The chance that you might earn less money is called:
 - a. consumer prices.
 - b. inflation risk.
 - c. interest-rate risk.
 - d. income risk.